

Michael Grinder and Associates

*Author of 12 books, Michael Grinder knows that Great Communication depends on How You Say It (non-verbals) More Than What You Say...
What are you saying with your NON-VERBALS?*

The best non-verbal communication and group dynamics training around!
Rev up your presentation skills, enhance group and team dynamics, effectively manage the boardroom or classroom all without saying a word.

"Michael offers seemingly subtle but exceedingly powerful facilitation and communication skills. His insight has an undeniable impact on your non-verbal communication. When participants leave his sessions, they are motivated, inspired, and excited!"

—Bobbi DePorter & Joe Chapon - President/VP, Quantum Learning Network

Brimming with practical ideas you can try today, The Elusive Obvious reveals the twenty-one non-verbals that are found at the heart of all communication models, no matter how different they may appear on the surface.

Charisma-The Art of Relationships is unlike anything you have seen before. The subtitle, Understanding the "cats" and "dogs" in our lives, should be your first hint that this is not a self-help book! Straightforward for you cats, it also appeals to you who like to make others happy, just like the lovable Golden Retriever.

"I continue to be fascinated by the clarity and the genius of the teaching, techniques and theories Michael Grinder presents in his seminars and books. Basic truths and knowledge, which every leader and teacher has intuitively experienced, have been placed within a clear and transparent framework. The unconscious becomes conscious. What had been intuition becomes a tool. Daily lives are not only simplified but become a (even greater) source of joy and pleasure! His seminars and teachings have changed my life as well as the lives of thousands of leaders, teachers and trainers. Thank you Michael."
